KEY INGREDIENTS & BENEFITS*

- Hematite is a gem rich in iron, helping to support natural pro-collagen synthesis.
- Malachite is rich in the essential trace element copper and the extract has been used as an "elixir of beauty" for centuries.
- Rhodolite is rich in manganese, an essential element for skin elasticity.
- Smithsonite is a gem rich in zinc, which is important to the skin for natural elastin and collagen synthesis.

*"Turning back the clock was always a 'wish.' The HydraGem Serums have made that wish come true! In a few short days, I could see and feel the difference. Blending gemstone extracts with the incredible GIA i-H2O is clearly a major breakthrough in skin care."
